

Remember, Celebrate, and Act! Honor Martin Luther King, Jr. through service activities during the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday of Service.

The Martin Luther King, Jr. Coalition of Greater Washington, DC invites you Tuesday, January 15th through Monday, January 21st to participate in community service projects around the DC metropolitan area.

Support the beliefs, life, work, and legacy of Dr. King by joining us and helping those in need - volunteer your time and talent.

Participate as an individual volunteer, in a group, or as a family to fulfill Dr. King's vision of community through service.

For more information or to register as a volunteer, visit <http://www.mlkcoalition.org> or call (202) 289-7378 ext.106.
